

AMERICORPS STUDENT SUCCESS PROGRAM

United Way of Northern Utah

EVERY STUDENT DESERVES TO REACH THEIR FULL POTENTIAL.

Beth was homeless for the last three years and had not been attending school. As life became more stable at home, she struggled getting back into the rhythm of homework and regularly attending classes.

After working with her Student Success Coordinator, they were able to work with her on meeting her unique challenges, and by the end of the year, she was passing all of her classes.

Student Success Coordinators work with their school's administration to identify and address their students' most urgent challenges.

72% of students* show academic improvement.

Students that fully participate receive at least 15 hours of intervention support.

WELCOME BABY

WANTING TO BE A GOOD PARENT IS THE FIRST STEP TO BEING A GREAT PARENT.

Emily was elated when she discovered she was pregnant and started looking for answers to do everything she could to make sure her baby was healthy. Thankfully, Emily found Welcome Baby. When Emily's son was born, she enrolled him immediately.

"I learned how to help my baby progress and learn. He was cooing a lot and saying 'baa baa' so I learned to sing 'Baa Baa Black Sheep' to help him form words."

Welcome Baby is a free home visitation program for children up to 36 months old, that supports families and promotes healthy early childhood development.

96% of parents report higher confidence in parenting.

LEARN WITH PLAYGROUP

LEARNING THROUGH PLAY PREPARES YOUR CHILD FOR KINDERGARTEN.

When Adam started in Learn with Playgroup, he was extremely shy. He started to open up in the group setting by focused playing with his mom. After a couple weeks, it was obvious that he was feeling safe and finding a routine in the Playgroup.

He was able to practice early social skills and met his best friend at Playgroup. Adam also learned to count to 20 and all of his ABC's. He's excited to start kindergarten with confidence and a best friend.

Learn with Playgroup is a fun and free weekly activity where parents and children come together to play, learn, and support each other.

86% of parents felt their child was more ready for kindergarten.

VOLUNTEER CONNECTION

HELPING OTHERS CAN MAKE PEOPLE HAPPY, AND YOU FEEL GOOD TOO.

A veteran who has developed multiple sclerosis, Byron was in need of help to make his home more wheelchair friendly and accessible. With four young children and his wife gone at work during the day, making home repairs and renovations was difficult on his own.

As part of Day of Caring, 20 volunteers showed up to install railings on the front porch, install a ramp, replace uneven stones with smooth cement walkways, and repaired siding on their house. While there, they also enhanced the landscaping to ensure their family could enjoy their yard.

You can turn your passion into meaningful service. Ask us how.

Get Help. Give Help.

EVERYONE NEEDS HELP SOMETIMES.

Kyle a senior living in Ogden, has a degenerative disease that affects his peripheral vision.

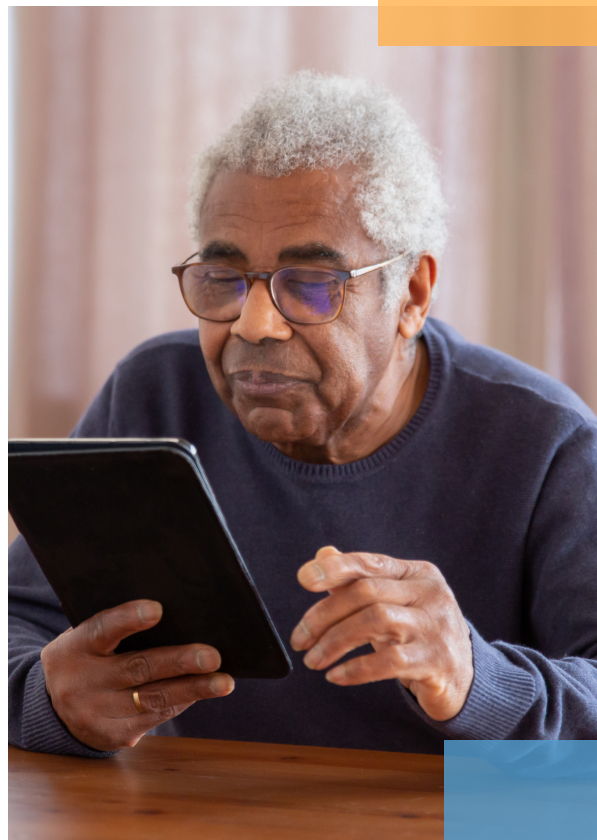

He struggles to go anywhere, especially when there is a lot of people where he bumps and has difficulties walking about.

He stopped going to the local food pantry. However, he still needed food, and for a month he struggled to have enough food for himself. Through 211's Last Mile Delivery, he receives a food box from a local church pantry.

He no longer needs to go to the pantry and he is able to obtain food at the door of his house.

211 can connect you to resources for mental health, education, basic needs, and more. Just call 211.

45,000+ referrals made in Utah annually.
